

Outing for Camera fans Sunday

(Columbus Dispatch, August 14, 1938) Central Ohio railroad and camera fans will hold an outing and camera tour at Cleveland Sunday. A special train has been chartered over the Big Four railroad and is scheduled to leave Columbus at 8:20 a.m., returning Sunday evening. The trip is sponsored by the Rail and Model Guild of Central Ohio, but is open to the public.

A tour of inspection of the N.Y.C. shops at Collinwood has been scheduled to follow the banquet at the railroad Y.M.C.A. At 3 p.m. the hobbyists will be taken on a camera tour of Cleveland by bus.
